

WINE

WHITE

SAAR RIESLING, VAN VOLXEM, GERMANY

£26.00/£9.00/£8.00

A gloriously intricate dry Riesling from a property which could aptly be described as a 'modern classic'. Layers of exotic fruit, citrus, spicy fresh cardamom and white stone offer a glass which has new interest on each visit.

WINE OF THE WEEK

DOMAINE FÉLINES JOURDAN, PICPOUL DE PINET, CÔTEAUX DE BÉSSILLES, FRANCE

£26.00/£9.00/£8.00

Remarkably fresh but with latent richness of honey and lemon oil underscoring the crisp 'pique'. A combination of more mineral, oyster shell and gunflint notes give a pure finish.

MOUNT FRANKLIN SAUVIGNON BLANC, MARLBOROUGH, NEW ZEALAND

£24.00/£8.50/£7.50

The classic Marlborough Sauvignon notes of asparagus and green citrus are amplified by softer peach notes for a particularly complete example.

FALERIO DEL COLLI, ASCOLANI, MARCHE, ITALY

£20.00/£7.00/£6.00

The perfect aperitif featuring the local varieties of Pecorino and Passerina, fine and elegant with a faintly almond quality in the aromas.

FAMILLE PERRIN, L'OUSTALET ORGANIC BLANC, FRANCE

£17.50/£6.00/£5.00

Another master-class in wine making from the auspices of the Perrin Family; Marsanne and Roussanne form a happy partnership giving a touch of exotic fruit with the piercing freshness of Marsanne.

RED

VIERNES MENCÍA, GODELIA, BIERZO, SPAIN

£26.00/£9.00/£8.00

The Mencia grape, a native of this area of Spain, is rightfully gaining a new fan base recently. Rustic, robust and impressive but with approachable, soft, juicy fruit and notes of tapenade.

RECANATI WINERY SHIRAZ, UPPER GALILEE, ISRAEL

£26.00/£9.00/£8.00

Sitting comfortably between the pepper spice and vivacity of Rhône and the ripe bramble fruit and generosity of the Barossa, this is not just an outstanding Israeli wine; it is an outstanding wine full stop.

BRAGHE, COLLI TORTONESI, CLAUDIO MARIOTTO, ITALY

£25.00/£7.50/£6.50

As Claudio would have it 'soft, fresh and filled with content, festive happiness'. Delicious cherry red fruit, raspberry and a note of earth, this is a wine which truly reflects its bucolic northern Italian origins.

CÔTES DU RHÔNE NATURE ROUGE FRANCE

£24.00/£8.50/£7.50

Plenty of warm fruit here, evocative of the rolling garrigue and lavender hills of the Rhône. Fresh strawberry and raspberry notes with spicy clove notes, the tannins are typically soft giving a lush feel on the palate.

ST CLEMENTS SHIRAZ, PAARL, SOUTH AFRICA

£20.00/£7.00/£6.00

Ripe black fruit and spicy black pepper are joined by more dried notes of freshening fruit. The ripe fruit belies its Southern Hemisphere origins but there is a distinctly European feel in the fresh finish.

EFE MONASTRELL, BODEGAS LOS FRAILES, VALENCIA, SPAIN

£17.50/£6.00/£5.00

The revolution of quality currently sweeping Spain makes it one of the most dynamic and exciting areas of wine production in the world. This wine further proves that the best grape varieties are the native ones; with is juicy soft fruit satisfyingly reinforced with balsamic notes.

ROSÉ

SANCERRE ROSÉ, LA NOUE, DOMAINE RIFFAULT, FRANCE

£26.00/£9.00/£8.00

Super, super, super; vibrant colour, sprightly red fruit followed by an appealingly juicy feel to the palate which then finishes brilliantly clean. Incredible!

LES AMOURETTES ROSÉ, PAYS D'HÉRAULT, FRANCE

£20.00/£7.00/£6.00

A delicate nacreous pink colour preludes hints of wild strawberry and spice on the nose. On the palate there is an impressive fruit basket of flavour; a little rosehip with wild cherry behind it.

SPARKLING

CHAMPAGNE POL ROGER, BRUT RÉSERVE, FRANCE

£45.00 (bottle)

Churchill's favourite house even featured in a war time speech or two; today the rich style remains popular with the UK market. Finesse and exuberance feature deftly alongside one another.

HAMBLEDON, CLASSIC CUVÉE, HAMPSHIRE, ENGLAND

£42.00/£8.50

From an outstanding, recently reinvigorated old vineyard in the Hampshire village of Hambledon is one to watch. There is a purity here which is easily mistaken for Grand Cru Champagne.

PROSECCO BELE CASEL, ASOLO, ITALY

£26.50/£6.50

Pure pulpy fruit in exquisite harmony with the fresh white limestone and floral notes, supple mousse and soft peachy notes.
